

Paulding County Area Foundation

mikaylarpieper@gmail.com

419-769-2668

Paulding County Area Foundation awards scholarships

Paulding, OH: The Paulding County Area Foundation has announced the recipients of the Anonymous Donor Scholarship of $1,000.00 each to go towards their college education. From Antwerp High School the recipients include Kortney Smith who will be attending Indiana University- Fort Wayne to study nursing, and Joshua Poulson who will be attending Bowling Green State University studying Health and Physical Education. From Paulding High School award recipients include Abigail Adams who will be attending International Business College-Fort Wayne in the Fall to study Veterinary Technology, and Madison Good who will attend The Ohio State University to study English with a literature focus. From Wayne Trace High School award recipients include Gracie Gudakunst who will be attending The Ohio State University to study Animal Science, and Autumn Banks who will also be attending The Ohio State University/ATI to study Animal Science/Business. The Anonymous Donor Scholarship allows students to receive extra funds to help pay for their education that in turn helps their community. The Paulding County Area Foundation wishes the graduates the best and looks forward to seeing their successes, congratulations and good luck!